

Bezmialem Vakif University Faculty of Pharmacy Programme Qualification

1	Our graduated students will conduct their occupation with ethical principles and rules about pharmaceutical sciences and improve it according to scientific and technical development.
2	Our graduated students take active roles in development of new policies about pharmacy and its working areas.
3	Our graduated students give information to health workers, administrators about drug applications and will be in a relationship with all the partners.
4	Our graduated students will coach in a patient focused way about rational and safe drug applications and pharmacovigilance report system.
5	Our graduated students have current knowledge about all the stages of design, production, quality control processes of pharmaceuticals, cosmetics and medical devices.
6	Our graduated students inform health workers, administrators and patients about natural products safety and quality.
7	Our graduated students identify medical and toxic plants.
8	Our graduated students will have enough information to work in the production and development processes of biotechnologic and radiopharmaceutic products.
9	Our graduated students officiate about physical, chemical, biological, toxicologic and pharmaceutical properties of drugs in nanoformulations.
10	Our graduated students will be informed about drug quality, control and standardization.
11	Our graduated students take roles in drug registration, data protection and patent and related subjects.
12	Our graduated students will have the ability to carry out scientific researches and conduct researches according to ethical rules.
13	Our graduated students operate pharmacies and organization related to pharmacy and support the staff in terms of occupational development.